

Is my AC unit big enough or too small?

Hanks Service has trained technicians who can answer this after we perform an energy survey for you. To answer this question it requires we perform a complete heat load calculation, then and only then can you be assured your equipment is properly sized. There is NO "rule of thumb answer".